

TABLES

swap

It's a simple thing done right

Swap™ tables – the right proportions, flawless surfaces and a solid foundation. Square or round bases with integrated leveling. Seven standard heights support coffee tables to bar height surfaces and everything in between.

Table for one, please

Swap laptop tables provide enough surface space for a laptop, tablet or a coffee and croissant. Square base models are available with an offset column for extra legroom. The 25.6" height puts everything at the right height for lounge seating applications.

The new lounge height

There are times when a 28.5"H table is a little too high to be comfortable. Lounge height Swap tables provide a finished height of 27"H to better support occasional, lounge and banquet seating applications.
